

John J. Nestico (N.Y. SBN 1724020)
SCHNEIDER WALLACE
COTTRELL KONECKY LLP
6000 Fairview Road, Suite 1200
Charlotte, North Carolina 28210
Tel: (510) 740-2946; Fax: (415) 421-7105
jnestico@schneiderwallace.com

Carolyn H. Cottrell (Cal. SBN 166977)
To apply for admission Pro Hac Vice
Ori Edelstein (Cal. SBN 268145)
To apply for admission Pro Hac Vice
Kristabel Sanchez (Cal. SBN 323714)
To apply for admission Pro Hac Vice
SCHNEIDER WALLACE
COTTRELL KONECKY LLP
2000 Powell Street, Suite 1400
Emeryville, California 94608
Tel: (415) 421-7100; Fax: (415) 421-7105
ccottrell@schneiderwallace.com
oedelstein@schneiderwallace.com
ksandoval@schneiderwallace.com

William M. Hogg (Tex. SBN 24087733)
To apply for admission Pro Hac Vice
SCHNEIDER WALLACE
COTTRELL KONECKY LLP
3700 Buffalo Speedway, Suite 960
Houston, Texas 77098
Tel: (713) 338-2560; Fax: (415) 421-7105
whogg@schneiderwallace.com

Attorneys for Plaintiff and Class members

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

KRISTINA KRAFT, Individually and On Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL, INC. and NFDY HOTEL MANAGEMENT LLC

Defendant.

Case No. _____

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff Kristina Kraft, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, brings this class action against Defendants Marriott International, Inc. and NFNH Hotel Management LLC (collectively “Defendants”) on behalf of individuals who have worked for Defendants as servers, waiters, bartenders, room service attendants, and other non-managerial service workers paid on an hourly basis, and are subject to Defendants’ service fee policies and practices. This case implicates Defendants’ longstanding policies and practices, which fail to properly compensate all non-exempt service workers for service charge payments remitted to them as wages. As a result, throughout the relevant time period, Plaintiff and similarly situated workers are denied payment for all service fees charges to customers that are reasonably perceived to be meant as gratuity payments.

2. Defendants impose mandatory “service charge” and/or “delivery fee” surcharges (hereinafter collectively referred to as “service fee”) on the sale of food and beverages to their customers, but fail to distribute the total proceeds of those service fee surcharges to non-managerial service employees as required by New York law. This conduct violates New York Labor Law § 196-d. This conduct further constitutes false advertising, as well as deceptive and unfair business practices, under New York General Business Law §§ 349 and 350.

3. Plaintiff and Class members bring the following causes of action to challenge Defendants’ policies and practices of: (1) failing to remit all service fee surcharges to Plaintiff and Class members; (2) instituting deceptive and unfair business practices in violation of New York General Business Laws; (3) instituting false advertising efforts in violation of New York General Business Laws; (4) unjust enrichment for failure to remit the entirety of the service fee surcharges to non-managerial service workers; (5) failing to provide Plaintiff and Class members accurate, itemized wage statements as required by N.Y. Lab. Law § 195(3); and (6) failing to provide accurate and proper written notice as required by N.Y. Lab. Law § 195(1).

4. Plaintiff files this action to recover all unpaid wages, compensation, penalties, liquidated damages, treble damages, and other damages on behalf of herself and Class members under New York state law as a class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23. Plaintiff seeks to remedy the sweeping practices Defendants integrated into their gratuity systems and payroll policies that have deprived Plaintiff and Class members of their lawfully earned wages.

SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This court has federal question jurisdiction over the subject matter of Plaintiff's state law causes of action pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2) ("CAFA"). Under CAFA, this court has original jurisdiction over Plaintiff's Rule 23 class action claims because the matter in controversy is believed to exceed $5,000,000, and because Plaintiff and at least one of the Defendants are citizens of different states. Moreover, the number of proposed class members in New York is believed to exceed 100.

6. Defendant Marriott International Inc. operates numerous properties in this district and in the state, is registered to do business in this district and this state, and employs hundreds of workers in this district and the state of New York. Defendant NFNY Hotel Management LLC's principal place of business is in New York. Accordingly, Defendants are subject to general personal jurisdiction in New York.

7. Venue is proper in this judicial district because both Defendants are subject to general jurisdiction in the State of New York, and there is a pending related case in this district: Ramirez v. Marriott International, Inc., et al, Case No. 7:20-cv-02397, filed on March 18, 2020 in the Southern District of New York. Considerations of judicial economy strongly suggest that this case should be tried in the district in which such a related case is pending. Indeed, when multiple claims are brought in different forums, there is a strong policy in the Second Circuit favoring the litigation of related claims in the same tribunal or order to avoid duplicitous litigation and inconsistent results.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff Kristina Kraft is an individual over the age of eighteen, and at all times relevant to this Complaint was a resident of the State of New York, County of Niagara. Plaintiff was employed as a food and beverage server by Defendants at the Sheraton Niagara Falls in Niagara Falls, New York from 2012 to September 2019.

9. The New York Class members are all people who are or who have been employed by Defendants, in their individual employer capacities as well as their capacity as joint employers, as hourly non-exempt employees, including but not limited to, food and beverage servers, in-room dining servers, and other similar hourly and non-exempt service workers throughout the State of New York within the six years preceding the filing of this Complaint.

10. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant Marriott International, Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business located in Maryland, and is registered to do business in New York. Marriott International, Inc. may be served with process by serving its registered agent, C T Corporation System, 28 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10005.

11. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant NFNY Hotel Management LLC is a Delaware limited liability corporation with its principal place of business located in New York, and is registered to do business in New York. NFNY Hotel Management LLC may be served with process by serving the New York Secretary of State at One Commerce

Plaza, 99 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12231. See N.Y. Bus. Corp. Law §§ 306, 306-A, and 307; N.Y. Limited Liab. Co. Law § 303.

12. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that at all times mentioned in this Complaint, Defendants are the agents and employees of their co-defendants and in doing the things alleged in this Complaint were acting within the course and scope of such agency and employment.

13. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, individually and/or jointly, own, operate, and maintain hotels and restaurants throughout the United States, including in New York. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that each Defendant employs Class members, among other hourly employees, throughout the United States, including in New York.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each and every one of the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, and/or attributable to, Defendants, each acting as agents and/or employees, and/or under the direction and control of each of the other, and that said acts and failures to act were within the course and scope of said agency, employment and/or direction and control.

15. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant Marriott International, Inc. directly controls the operations of its agent, Defendant NFNY Hotel Management LLC. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants jointly exercised control over Plaintiff and Class members with respect to their employment.

16. As joint employers of Plaintiff and Class members throughout the relevant time periods, Defendants, and each of them, are solely, jointly, and severally liable for penalties for violating New York Labor Law, rules and regulations, and other state laws, with respect to the employment of Plaintiff and Class members.

17. Throughout this Complaint, any reference to “Defendant” or “Defendants” is intended to refer to Defendants Marriott International, Inc. and NFNY Hotel Management LLC jointly.

18. At all material times, Defendants have done business under the laws of New York, have continuously maintained physical places of business in New York, including in this district, and have employed Class members in this district and elsewhere throughout New York. Defendants are “employers” within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 651(6).

19. Defendants each individually and/or jointly own, operate, and/or manage hotels, restaurants, and resorts throughout New York and the United States.

20. Defendants acted and continue to act as joint employers of Plaintiff because they jointly, directly or indirectly, control the employment terms, pay practices, timekeeping practices, and daily work of Plaintiff and Class members. Upon information and belief, Defendant Marriott International, Inc. employ Class members jointly with the Defendant NFNY Hotel Management LLC and/or with other currently unknown entities, because Defendants jointly, directly or indirectly, control the employment terms, pay practices, timekeeping practices, and daily work of Plaintiff and similarly situated employees.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendants enter into similar joint employment relationships with other operators like NFNY Hotel Management LLC and impose similar policies and practices with respect to their joint employees regardless of the specific joint employer.

22. At all material times, Defendants do business under the laws of New York, have places of business in the State of New York, including in this judicial district, and employ Class members in this judicial district. Defendants are “employers” as defined in New York Labor Law § 651(6).

23. Upon information and belief, Defendant NFNY Hotel Management LLC operates multiple hotels and restaurants, and employs Class members, throughout the State of New York.

24. Defendant Marriott International, Inc., according to its website, operates a litany of hotels, restaurants, and resorts, and employs Class members, throughout the State of New York and the United States.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

25. Defendants operate a chain of hotels, restaurants, and resorts throughout the United States and New York, including but not limited to Sheraton Niagara Falls, which is located in Niagara Falls, New York. Defendants employ dozens of hourly non-exempt workers similarly situated to Plaintiff across these facilities.

26. Plaintiff worked at the Sheraton Niagara Falls as a food and beverage server from 2012 through September 2019. Plaintiff was paid at an hourly rate of $7.83 plus tips. She was usually scheduled to work approximately six-to-eight hours each shift and three-to-four shifts per week. On average, Plaintiff worked approximately 20-to-25 hours per week, and occasionally picked up extra shifts.

27. As a matter of course, Defendants routinely add a mandatory surcharge between 1% to 3% to its food and beverage bills. These service fees are in the form of automatic surcharges which customers are required to pay, and which reasonably appear to be gratuities for the service and delivery staff.

28. During the relevant time period, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Class members any portion of the service fees charged to customers as supplementary payments in addition to their regular hourly wages. Instead, Defendants have a policy and practice of retaining those service fees and/or using a portion of the service fees to pay non-service workers. As a result, Plaintiff and Class members do not receive the total proceeds of the service fees as gratuities, to which they are entitled under New York law.

29. As a result of these policies, Defendants deny Plaintiff and Class members surcharge service fees to which they are lawfully owed.

30. Defendants' common course of wage-and-hour abuse includes routinely failing to maintain true and accurate wage notices and records of the wages withheld from Class members. In particular, Defendants' failure to record all service fee surcharge payments results in a failure to provide Class members, including Plaintiff, accurate itemized wage statements as required by New York law. The wage statements Defendants provide are not accurate because they do not reflect the actual wages earned as service fee surcharges by Plaintiff and Class members.

31. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not provide Plaintiff and Class members with a written notice, in English and Spanish, containing accurate representations of, among other things, their rates of pay and basis thereof, including the terms of the service fee surcharges to be paid to the service workers and the allowances and deductions to be deducted from their wages.

32. Class members were and are employed by Defendants and perform work materially similar to Plaintiff.

33. Class members report to a facility owned, operated, or managed by Defendants to perform their jobs.

34. Class members perform their jobs under Defendants' supervision and using materials and technology approved and supplied by Defendants.

35. Class members are required to follow and abide by common work, time, pay, meal and rest break, and overtime policies and procedures in the performance of their jobs.

36. At the end of each pay period, Class members receive wages from Defendants that are determined by common systems and methods that Defendants select and control.

37. Defendants pay Class members on an hourly rate basis.

38. Defendants do not provide Class members, including Plaintiff, accurate wage notices and itemized wage statements as required by New York law. The wage statements they are provided are not accurate because they do not contain all of the service fee surcharges that should be remitted to Plaintiff and Class members.

39. Defendants have employed hundreds of people similarly situated to Plaintiff during the six-year period prior to the filing of this Complaint.

40. Defendants' method of paying Plaintiff and Class members is willful, and is not based on a good faith and reasonable belief that their conduct complies with New York law. Defendants' willful conduct, carried out in bad faith, caused significant damages to non-exempt hourly employees in an amount to be determined at trial.

RULE 23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

41. Plaintiff brings causes of action as a class action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) and (b)(3). The New York Class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly, non-exempt employees, including but not limited to servers, food servers, beverage servers, in-room dining servers, banquet servers, or other employees with similar job duties employed by Defendants, individually and/or jointly, in New York any time starting six years prior to the filing of this Complaint until resolution of this action.

42. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action because there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable.

43. Numerosity: The potential members of the class are so numerous that joinder of all the members of the Class is impracticable. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the number of New York Class members exceeds 100. This volume makes bringing the claims of each individual member of the class before this Court impracticable. Likewise, joining each individual member of the New York Class as a plaintiff in this action is impracticable. Furthermore, the identities of the New York Class will be determined from Defendants' records, as will the compensation paid to each of them. As such, a class action is a reasonable and practical means of resolving these claims. To require individual actions would prejudice the New York Class and Defendants.

44. Commonality: There are questions of law and fact common to Plaintiff and the New York Class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. These common questions of law and fact include, but are not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants have a policy and/or practice of charging a service fee to customers;
- b. Whether Defendants have a policy and/or practice of failing to remit the entirety of the service fee charged to its customers to Class members;
- c. Whether Defendants' customers reasonably understood that the service fee charged by Defendants was intended to be a gratuity for Class members;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to include supplementary payments such as service fee surcharges in the regular rates of pay for Plaintiff and Class members;
- e. Whether Defendants fail to provide Class members with timely, accurate itemized wage statements in violation of the N.Y. Lab. Law § 193(3);

- f. Whether Defendants fail to provide written notice, in English and Spanish, in compliance with N.Y. Lab. Law § 195(1);
- g. Whether Defendants violate New York unfair/deceptive trade practices by failing to remit all service fee surcharges to Class members;
- h. Whether Defendants' conduct in failing to remit all of the service fee surcharges to Plaintiff and Class members constitutes unjust enrichment; and
- i. The proper formula for calculating restitution, damages and penalties owed to Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein.

45. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the New York Class. Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of law as alleged herein caused Plaintiff and Class members to sustain the same or similar injuries and damages. Plaintiff's claims are thereby representative of and co-extensive with the claims of the Class.

46. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff seeks relief for state law violations perpetrated by Defendants. In that sense, Plaintiff does not have any conflicts of interest with other Class members and will prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the Class. Counsel representing Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating complex cases and large class actions, including wage and hour cases. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class members.

47. Superiority of Class Action: A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all proposed Class members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. Each proposed Class member has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies and/or practices.

Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

48. In the alternative, the Class may be certified because the prosecution of separate actions by the individual members of the Class would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants.

49. If each individual Class member were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage because Defendants would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each member of the Class with Defendants' vastly superior financial legal resources.

50. Requiring each individual Class member to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by the Class members who would be disinclined to pursue these claims against Defendants because of an appreciable and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damage to their lives, careers and well-being

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 196-d
Improper Retainer of Service Fees from Service Workers
(On Behalf of the Class)

51. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

52. New York Labor Law § 196-d prohibits employers from retaining: (1) "any part of a gratuity"; or (2) "any charge purported to be a gratuity for an employee."

53. Section 196-d does not prohibit "practices in connection with banquets and other special functions where a fixed percentage of the patron's bill is added for gratuities which are distributed to employees" or "the sharing of tips by a waiter with a busboy or similar employee."

54. Whether mandatory or voluntary, § 196-d covers any charge that a reasonable customer would have believed would serve as a gratuity. Indeed, if § 196-d were interpreted to cover only voluntary payments, employers would have license to mislead patrons as to the cost of their meals and how much of their payments will be directed to service employees, in clear contravention of the statute's text and purpose. Quite the opposite, § 196-d's clear directive is that employers must distribute to service workers any "charge purported to be a gratuity for an employee."

55. Defendants attach a hidden surcharge, misleadingly labeled as a "service fee" to all food and beverage sales in the amount of 1% to 3% for food and beverage services. Unwary customers pay these service fees reasonably believing that the entirety of the service fee will be remitted to the service workers as gratuity payment, as is the widely accepted custom throughout the hospitality industry. Defendants, however, do not remit the entire service fee proceeds to Plaintiff and Class members.

56. In relevant part, § 196-d provides:

No employer . . . or any other person shall demand or accept, directly or indirectly, any part of the gratuities, received by an employee, or retain any part of a gratuity or of any charge purported to be a gratuity for an employee. . . . Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as affecting . . . practices in connection with banquets and other specific functions where a fixed percentage of the patron's bill is added for gratuities which are distributed to employees, nor to the sharing of tips by a waiter with a busboy or similar employee.

57. The statute forbids employers from retaining "any part" of either (1) "a gratuity"; or (2) "any charge purported to be a gratuity." In other words, the statute treats identically a "gratuity" and a "charge" that purports to be a gratuity, attaching no significance to whether a payment is made voluntarily as a tip or involuntarily as a mandatory surcharge. All that is required is that a charge purports, or "seems" to be a gratuity.

58. Customers reasonably believe that Defendants' mandatory service fees are actually gratuity payments to service workers. The term as used in Defendants' billing practices, "service fee" or "delivery fee," indicate the surcharge is intimately connected with the "service" of preparing and/or "delivering" the food and beverages.

59. N.Y. Lab. Law § 196-d requires the distribution of "service fee" surcharges, in their entirety, to service workers. Plaintiff and Class members are and have been deprived of receiving the service fee surcharges in full that Defendants should have paid them.

60. Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to the portions of the service fees that were not originally remitted to the service workers.

61. Upon information and belief, Defendants' ongoing violation of § 196-d are willful. Accordingly, Defendants are also liable under N.Y. Lab. Law § 198 for payment to Plaintiff and Class members of a 25% penalty.

62. Plaintiff and Class members are also entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to § 198.

63. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Injunctive Relief for Violation of General Business Law § 349
Deceptive and Unfair Practices Act
(On Behalf of the Class)

64. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

65. Plaintiff brings this claim on behalf of himself and all other members of the Class for an injunction and to recover damages for Defendants' violations of New York's Deceptive Acts or Practices Law, Gen. Bus. Law § 349.

66. Section 349 provides that “deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce in the furnishing of any service in this state are . . . unlawful.”

67. To establish a claim under § 349, it is not necessary to prove justifiable reliance.

68. Any person who has been injured by reason of any violation of § 349 may bring an action on their own name to enjoin such unlawful act or practice, an action to recover their actual damages or fifty dollars, whichever is greater, or both such actions. The court may, in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages up to one thousand dollars, if the court finds the Defendants willfully or knowingly violated this section. The court may award reasonable attorneys’ fees to a prevailing plaintiff.

69. The practices employed by Defendants, whereby Defendants advertised, promoted, and marketed that their food and drink cost the listed price and then characterized their hidden surcharge as a “service fee” was unfair, deceptive, and misleading to Plaintiff and Class members in violation of § 349 for, inter alia, one or more of the following reasons:

- a. Defendants engage in deceptive, unfair and unconscionable commercial practices in failing to reveal material facts and information about the price of their food and drink, and the nature of their surcharge, which does (or tends to) mislead customers, Plaintiff, and Class members about facts that are not reasonably known by them;
- b. Defendants knowingly and falsely represent their hidden surcharge as a “service fee” with an intent to cause customers, Plaintiff, and Class members to believe the surcharge amount would be remitted in full to the serving staff as a gratuity payment;

- c. Defendants fail to reveal facts that are material to the transactions in light of representations of fact made in a positive manner;
- d. Defendants cause Plaintiff and Class members to suffer a probability of confusion and a misunderstanding of legal rights, obligations, and/or remedies by and through Defendants' conduct;
- e. Defendants fail to reveal material facts to customers, Plaintiff, and Class members with the intent that customers, Plaintiff, and Class members rely upon those omissions;
- f. Defendants make material representations and statements of fact to customers, Plaintiff, and Class members that result in those parties reasonably believing the represented or suggested state of affairs to be other than what they actually are; and
- g. Defendants intend that customers, Plaintiff, and Class members rely on Defendants' misrepresentations and omissions, so that customers would purchase the food and drink, and pay the surcharge.

70. Under all of the circumstances, Defendants' conduct in instituting these unfair and deceptive trade practices is malicious, willful, wanton and outrageous such as to shock the conscience of the community and warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

71. Defendants' actions impact the public interest because consumers, as well as the service workers affected, are injured in exactly the same way as thousands of others who pay a mandatory surcharge on food and drink, thinking the entirety of that surcharge will be remitted to the waitstaff who served the customer when in fact Defendants retain a portion of that surcharge, as a result of and pursuant to Defendants' generalized course of deception.

72. Plaintiff and Class members seek to enjoin such unlawful, deceptive acts and practices as described above. Class members will be irreparably harmed unless the unlawful, deceptive actions are enjoined in that Defendants will continue to falsely and misleadingly trick consumers into paying the surcharge by suggesting same is a “gratuity” to be wholly remitted to the service staff. Consumers would challenge the surcharge, or otherwise pay the customary gratuity in addition to the surcharge, if they were made aware the “service fee” was not actually remitted in full to the service staff.

73. Plaintiff and Class members are injured in fact and lost money as a result of Defendants’ conduct of improperly describing the pricing of food and drink, and the nature of the surcharge as described herein. Consumers purchase the food and drink believing such items to cost the listed price but are then charged a hidden surcharge that is misleadingly described as a “service fee.” The price consumers ultimately pay is consequently more than the value of the food and drink received, and they pay the hidden surcharge believing same to be a gratuity payment that will be remitted in full to the service staff, as is the overwhelming custom in the food and beverage industry.

74. Plaintiff and Class members seek declaratory relief, a judgment enjoining Defendants from continuing to disseminate their false and misleading statements, and awarding attorneys’ fees and costs of this proceeding, as provided by N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349, and all other relief allowable under § 349.

75. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Damages for Violation of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349
Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act
(On Behalf of the Class)

76. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

77. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the Class members for violations of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349.

78. By the acts and conduct alleged herein, Defendants' unfair or deceptive acts and practices in fact injured Plaintiff and Class members. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class members lost money as a result of Defendants' conduct of improperly describing the pricing of food and drink and the nature of the surcharge as described herein. In order for Plaintiff and Class members to be made whole, they need to receive restitution and disgorgement of all monies obtained by means of Defendants' unlawful conduct, interest, and attorneys' fees and costs, and all other relief allowable under N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349.

79. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Damages for Violations of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 350
Unlawful False Advertising
(On Behalf of the Class)

80. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

81. Defendants have been and are engaging in the "conduct of . . . business, trade or commerce" within the meaning of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 350.

82. Section 350 makes unlawful "[f]alse advertising in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce." False advertising includes "advertising, including labeling, of a commodity .

. . if such advertising is misleading in a material respect,” taking into account “the extent to which the advertising fails to reveal facts material in light of . . . representations [made] with respect to the commodity . . .” N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 350-a(1).

83. Defendants caused to be made or disseminated through advertising, marketing and other publications, statements that are untrue or misleading, and that are known, or which by the existence of reasonable care should be known to Defendants, to be untrue and misleading to consumers, Plaintiff, and New York Class members.

84. Defendants’ misrepresentations, by way of both affirmative statements and omissions, as described herein, are material and substantially uniform in content, presentation, and impact upon consumers at large. Consumers purchasing food and drink are and continue to be exposed to Defendants’ material misrepresentations.

85. Defendants violate § 350 because the misrepresentations regarding food and drink pricing are material and likely deceive a reasonable customer in making the customer believe the “service fee” surcharge would be remitted in total to service workers like Plaintiff and Class members.

86. Plaintiff and Class members have suffered, and continue to suffer, an injury, including the loss of money/property, as a result of Defendants’ false and misleading advertising. In purchasing Defendants’ food and beverages, customers rely on Defendants’ misrepresentations relating to the price of the food and drink. Those representations are false and misleading because the food and drink have a hidden surcharge. This hidden surcharge is disguised to the customer as a “service fee,” which the customer reasonably believes is a gratuity payment that will be remitted in total to the service workers, as is the general custom throughout the food and beverage service industry. Had customers been made aware that the surcharge was not remitted in full to the service workers, customers likely would have challenged the surcharge or otherwise would not be as likely to purchase the food and drink from Defendants.

87. Plaintiff and Class members have suffered, and continue to suffer, an injury, including the loss of money or property as a result of Defendants' false and misleading advertising. In paying Defendants' hidden surcharge, customers relied on Defendants' misrepresentations and/or omissions relating to the nature of the surcharge. Those representations were false and/or misleading because the surcharge is not really a gratuity payment, and is not remitted in full to Plaintiff and Class members. Had customers known this, they likely would have challenged the mandatory surcharge, provided additional gratuity to the service workers, and/or otherwise demanded the full amount of the surcharge be remitted to Plaintiff and Class members in accordance to the widely accepted practice throughout the food and beverage service industry.

88. Pursuant to N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 350-e, Plaintiff and Class members seek monetary damages (including actual damages and minimum, punitive, or treble damages, and/or all other statutory damages pursuant to § 350-a(1)), injunctive relief, restitution and disgorgement of all monies obtained by means of Defendants' unlawful conduct, interest, and attorneys' fees and costs.

89. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Unjust Enrichment
(On Behalf of the Class)

90. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

91. Defendants' conduct as set forth above constitutes unjust enrichment under New York common law.

92. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class members bestowed a benefit in the form of service which is customarily “tipped” in addition to hourly wages that are regularly paid to service workers.

93. Because of Defendants’ non-payment and underpayment to service workers of all sums denominated as “service fees” and/or “delivery fees,” Defendants knowingly receive and retain funds that patrons intend to be paid in full to the waitstaff and other service workers.

94. In equity and good conscience, said funds belong to Plaintiff and Class members, not Defendants or other non-service workers employed by Defendants.

95. Defendants will obtain such benefit without adequately compensating Plaintiff and Class members if Defendants are permitted to retain the unpaid service fee surcharges collected from their customers without remitting the entirety of the service fee payments to their intended beneficiaries – the non-managerial service workers.

96. Defendants should therefore be required to disgorge all ill-gotten gains as a result of failing to remit the entirety of gratuity proceeds charged to Defendants’ customers to service employees.

97. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements Pursuant to N.Y. Lab. Law § 195
(On Behalf of the Class)

98. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

99. Defendants do not provide Plaintiff and Class members with accurate itemized wage statements as required by N.Y. Lab. Law § 195(3).

100. With each payment of wages, Defendants fail to provide Plaintiff and Class members with an accurate statement listing each of the following categories of information:

- a. The dates of work covered by that payment of wages;
- b. Name of employee;
- c. Name of employer;
- d. Address and phone number of employer;
- e. Rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether the employee is paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other;
- f. Gross wages;
- g. Deductions;
- h. Allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage;
- i. Net wages;
- j. The regular hourly rate or rates of pay;
- k. The overtime rate or rates of pay;
- l. The number of regular hours worked; and
- m. The number of overtime hours worked.

101. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and each Class member in the amount of $2,500, together with attorneys' fees and costs.

102. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the putative Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Notice and Recordkeeping Requirement Pursuant to N.Y. Lab. Law § 195
(On Behalf of the Class)

103. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

104. Defendants fail to provide Plaintiff and Class members with a written notice, in English and in Spanish, containing the following categories of information as required by N.Y. Lab. Law § 195(1):

- a. The rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other;
- b. Allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances;
- c. The regular pay day designated by the employer;
- d. The name of the employer;
- e. Any “doing business as” names used by the employer;
- f. The physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and
- g. The telephone number of the employer.

105. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and each Class member in the amount of $2,500, together with attorneys’ fees and costs.

106. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the Class request relief as hereinafter provided.

JURY DEMAND

107. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of Class members, requests the following relief:

1. Damages and restitution according to proof at trial for all unpaid gratuities, wages and other injuries, as provided by New York Labor Law, New York General Business Law, and all other applicable laws, rules, and regulations of New York;

2. For a declaratory judgment that Defendants violated New York Labor Law, New York General Business Law, and public policy as alleged herein;
3. For preliminary, permanent, and mandatory injunctive relief prohibiting Defendants, their officers, agents, and all those acting in concert with them from committing, now and in the future, those violations of law herein alleged;
4. For an order requiring Defendants to disgorge all profits and other ill-gotten gains resulting from their failure to remit the entirety of gratuities to non-managerial service employees;
5. For an equitable accounting to identify, locate, and restore to all current and former employees the gratuities and wages they are due, with interest thereon;
6. For an order awarding Plaintiff and the Class members compensatory damages, including gratuities owed, lost wages, earnings, liquidated damages, treble damages, and other employee benefits, restitution, recovery of all money/property, actual damages, and all other sums of money owed to Plaintiff and Class members, together with interest on these amounts according to proof;
7. For an order awarding Plaintiff and Class members civil penalties pursuant to the New York Labor Law, and the laws of the State of New York, with interest thereon;
8. For an order awarding reasonable attorneys' fees as provided by the New York Labor Law, New York General Business Law, the laws of the State of New York, and/or other applicable law;
9. For all costs of suit;
10. For interest on any penalties awarded, as provided by applicable law; and
11. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Date: April 3, 2020

SCHNEIDER WALLACE
COTTRELL KONECKY LLP

/s/ John J. Nestico

---

John J. Nestico (N.Y. SBN 1724020)
6000 Fairview Road, Suite 1200
Charlotte, North Carolina 28210
Tel: (510) 740-2946; Fax: (415) 421-7105
jnestico@schneiderwallace.com

Carolyn H. Cottrell (to apply pro hac vice) Ori Edelstein (to apply pro hac vice) Kristabel Sanchez (to apply pro hac vice)
2000 Powell Street, Suite 1400
Emeryville, California 94608
Tel: (415) 421-7100; Fax: (415) 421-7105
ccottrell@schneiderwallace.com
oedelstein@schneiderwallace.com
ksandoval@schneiderwallace.com

William M. Hogg (to apply pro hac vice)
3700 Buffalo Speedway, Suite 960
Houston, Texas 77098
Tel: (713) 338-2560; Fax: (415) 421-7105
whogg@schneiderwallace.com

Counsel for Plaintiff and Class Members